

Catered chalet accommodation is something that Morzine does well, including smaller high-end tour operators offering stylish, well-run options with great views and within walking distance of pistes, resort shops and bars. Each winter sees a plethora of new chalets opening, offering a host of luxury facilities for guests from spas and pools to games rooms and home cinemas, with standards increasing each year.

The vast range of chalets on offer makes Morzine a particularly good destination for extended families or groups of friends.
